

What should I already know?

- ◇ That art can be 3D.
- ◇ What a sculpture is.
- ◇ Sketching and shading using sketching pencils.

Key Vocabulary

Architects, environment, scale, structures, form, impact, architectural model, aspirational home, foamboard, environmental impact, innovative, movement.

Resources to help me with my learning!

- ◇ National Oak academy: Key Stage 2 art.
- ◇ BBC Teach art and design.

What will I know by the end of this unit?

- I know an architect designs buildings and that careful consideration is given to the environment.
- I know that architecture can be on large and small scales.
- I know there are design movements such as the 'tiny house movement'.
- I know that artists use models to present and share their ideas.
- I can use construction materials to turn my sketched ideas into architecture models.
- I can use the design through making technique without drawing a plan.
- I can talk about my model and ideas giving reasons for some of my choices

